Referral information for professionals

For therapists, teachers, doctors, family resource centers and anyone outside the regional center who works with a family considering California's Self-Determination Program (SDP).

WHAT I DO

- Person-Centered Planning built around the person's strengths, goals and the life they want
- Getting families from orientation to an SDP start date: paperwork, requests, budget and spending plan
- Setting up the Financial Management Service, staff and vendors
- Optional ongoing support after SDP starts

WHO I WORK WITH

- Self-advocates and families at all 21 California regional centers
- Families just starting, and families already in SDP whose plan is not working

FUNDING

Person-Centered Plan	Funded by the regional center (service code 024)
Transition to SDP	Funded by the regional center (service code 099)
Ongoing support	Optional, funded from the SDP budget

No out-of-pocket cost to the family.

HOW TO REFER

- Give the family my number, or this sheet, and they can call or text me directly
- Or they can scan the QR code below and send me a short note themselves
- The first conversation is free, and the family gets an email summary afterward

Independent Facilitation services are planning and coordination services only and do not include advocacy or legal services. An Independent Facilitator is not required to participate in the Self-Determination Program. Please let families reach out themselves; I do not accept a family's details from anyone else.
